

beauty tip

When the temperature rises, less is more—especially when it comes to your makeup. To get Cristina's sun-kissed glow, lightly brush bronzer (try Wet 'n' Wild Bronzzer Gel) anywhere the sun hits naturally, like your cheekbones, nose and forehead. A sheer pink, slightly frosty lip (like Jane MegaBites lipstick in Berry Kiwi) adds just the right amount of color without looking too made-up. For really sexy, I-spent-all-day-on-the-beach hair, use a bit of texturizing gel (Nolita Grit Gel is great) for perfectly tousled waves.
